Message from Canon Alan:

It may seem strange to say but I feel this Holy Week and Triduum has been the best ever. The involvement of so many people and the attendance at all the services has been fantastic. The visitor responses have been wonderful.

None of this would happen without the amazing team work that goes on behind the scenes as well as those upfront. Hundreds of hours of hard work make it all so special. To all who read, served, welcomed and made the church look amazing, thank you! As ever the liturgies were so enhanced by our wonderful choir. To the backroom teams who produce our service sheets, notifications and newsletter, I cannot thank you enough.

Let us celebrate with hope this special Eastertide.

With love as always

“When hope is spent and we feel loneliness in our hearts, inner weariness, the torment of sin, the fear of failure, let us return to Jesus. For He is the only one who always defeats death and always renews our life.”
